LOLLY REWARDS

Helping Charities and Sports Associations reward good behaviour

Giving credit, getting credit.

We help charities and sports associations measure and grow grassroots participation numbers.

We help create a stronger community by bringing together members, volunteers, donors and sponsors around a dashboard.

Reward good behaviour

We help you recognise your members and volunteers contribution to the community with points that reward good behaviour.

- Participation in weekly training sessions
- Volunteering to help at community events
- Buying tickets to an event
- Donating a bag
- Volunteering to work in a shop

Incentivising points collection

We help you promote your cause with the use of dashboards showing:

- Individual, club and association level metrics
- Highlighting progress towards a common goal
- Organising fundraising drives
- Promoting rewards from your sponsors

Encouraging more contribution

We encourage points collectors to gift points to the association or club.

We providing tools for active community members to direct the use of resources.
